

RENAISSANCE®

At its heart, Renaissance Accelerated Reader is simple

Appropriate challenge

- > Students develop reading skills most effectively when they read appropriately challenging books
- > Renaissance Star Reading is a 20-minute computer-adaptive test that quickly and accurately establishes a student's reading age and ability

Motivational quizzes

- > Students using Renaissance Accelerated Reader are motivated to read constantly – in class, at break times and at home
- > Instant feedback on success engages students and motivates them to make progress

Extensive choice

- > Over 33,000 reading practice quizzes from more than 300 publishers and imprints
- > Fiction and non-fiction titles suitable for all ages and abilities

"We are seeing boys that have not borrowed independent books before, coming into the library, searching for and borrowing books within their ZPD range. In a short period of time, we are noticing boys reading out of their comfort zones and reading books that are outside of their usual genre."

Get reliable reading data in less testing time

"The instant feedback that the initial Star assessment gave was extremely accurate. Staff were instantly able to gauge student reading age and direct them towards books that were of interest and also ability based. Students also felt that they were able to independently choose a book that they would enjoy."
