

A man, a woman, and a boy in business attire are gathered around a computer in a classroom. The man, wearing glasses and a suit, is pointing at the screen. The woman, also in a suit, is sitting at the desk and looking at the screen. The boy, also in a suit, is sitting next to her and looking at the screen. The background shows a classroom with other desks and computers.

How Do I Choose the Right Book?

- Look for a book within your ZPD - Reading Range
- Have a look at the cover and read the blurb
- Consider authors and topics you like
- Read the first page, see if it gets your attention!

Read Your Book

- You should try and read a bit every day!
- If you're keeping a reading log, make sure to update it regularly
- When reading longer books try to make some brief notes after reading so you can remember key ideas and parts of the text
- You're ready to take the quiz when you've finished reading the book!

Handy Hints!

- Try and take the quiz within 24 hours of finishing the book.
- There is no time limit on the questions so don't rush.
- If you don't understand a question, ask a teacher or librarian to explain it.
- Make sure you've actually read the book! If you watched the movie version or you read it a long time ago, you're unlikely to pass the quiz!
