Family Reading Activities

Family Adventure: Tell your child about one of your favorite adventures. Where did you go? What did you see? Why were you there? Next step is to look up different myON books to learn more about that place you visited and the things you saw!

Reading Corner. Designate an area in your house for a reading corner! Set up a fort specifically meant for reading with your child! Create a sign to hang on the fort—Readers ONLY Past This Point!

Try Something New: Ask your children where they would like to travel in the world. Set up a dinner with the food shared in that area and research more about the climate, culture, animals, etc. that live in the area of the world that they choose.

New Hobby: Find a hobby you can share with your child. Whether it is cooking or playing the piano, hiking or collecting baseball cards, there is a myON book that will help you along the way! Learn more about that hobby on myON!

Track Progress: Ask your child to explain what is on their myON dashboard, what their reading level is and where they want it to be in the future.

20 Minutes: Reading outside of school is very important for your child to enhance learning growth. Try to set aside 20 minutes a day to read with your child.

Reach for the Stars: Set reading goals and reward your children when they accomplish these goals with fun family activities!

Lead by Example: Your children look up to you and want to emulate your actions. So if you set a good example by reading, they will want to read as well!

Alternative Ending: Before you finish reading a book with your children, write what you think should happen in the end and compare it to what actually happens.

Picture This: Have your children take pictures and write stories about the pictures. Create a storyline based on different locations.

More Family Reading Activities

Read to an Audience: Reading to an audience is fun! Have young children read aloud to their stuffed animals, siblings, or you. Choose a scene from the book and act it out.

Main Character: Talk with your child about the book they are reading. Ask, "If you were the main character in the story, would you make the same choices?"

Reminisce: What was your favorite story when you were your child's age? Can you find that book on myON? Is there a tale with a similar story line?

Book Review: Create a personal book review. Know what your children are reading and ask if they enjoyed the book and what their favorite parts were. Ask them if there were parts of the book that they did not like and what they would change about them.

Weekly Check-In: Smaller reading goals will help your children achieve their larger goals and dreams. Break their reading goals into small, attainable portions and check in each week to learn what they did to get to those goals.

Family Night: Establish your very own family night read-in. Set aside designated time for family reading when the entire family reads.

Get Cozy: Cuddle up and read to your children every night before going to bed.
